

Promoting “Healthy Christian Marriages” in Vermont

Participating Pastors and Pastors’ Wives Guidelines For 2008

Note: To be “Participating Members”, we ask that you participate in six or more of these guidelines.

ATTENDANCE

- Select and empower a husband and wife team from your church who will “champion” the marriage emphasis for your church
- Attend two Central Vermont Marriage Ministry planning meetings (by either marriage champion couple or pastor and wife team)
- Attend the “Keeping In Step With Your Mate” Marriage Conference (October 24th-25th, 2008) as a couple at The Killington Grande Ballroom and Conference Center in Killington, Vermont

PHILOSOPHY

- Agree with the philosophy of promoting healthy Christian marriages in Central Vermont
- Support other area churches in a joint vision for impacting our culture with healthy Christian marriage examples and trainings

PROMOTION

- Personally invite couples to attend the marriage conference
- Place the marriage conference information in your church bulletins
- Pass out conference fliers or include them as inserts in your bulletins
- Invite a promotional couple to speak (for 3-4 minutes) about the marriage conference during a Sunday morning worship service prior to the event

PRAYER

- Pray for God’s outcome and impact on marriages in our community through the marriage conference.

FINANCES

- Provide financial assistance for couples within your church or community to attend the marriage conference

Central Vermont Churches – “Healthy Christian Marriage” Pastoral Core Team

Dave and Dawn Lind, Calvary Bible Church, Rutland, VT	802.775.0358
Glenn and Laura Davis, Village Baptist, Belmont, VT	802.259.2440
Roland and Betsy Mitcheson, Middletown Springs Community	802.235.2097
Chris and Michelle Poluikis, First Baptist, Wallingford, VT	802.446.2020
Bill and Lynn Kingsley, The Brick Church, Clarendon, VT	802.773.3518